

History A Level Induction Homework

1. Watch the video which introduces your induction homework via this link. The homework task is explained in it.
2. Follow the instructions in the video to create your timeline of the events of 1917. You should use the framework below as a template.
3. Read the scanned textbook pages and use them as your main source of information, although you can look online for other sources to find more details if you wish to.
4. When you have finished, review your timeline and check that you have learned enough to be able to briefly explain how the factors below played a role in the Bolsheviks' rise to power. You don't need to write this down, but need to be prepared to explain in September.
  - The actions of Lenin;
  - Russian failure in the war;
  - Mistakes by the Provisional Government leaders;
  - Decisions of other political groups;
  - The attitudes of the people of Petrograd;
  - Interventions by the armed forces.

Template:

Date	What happened?	How close were the Bolsheviks to power?
February 1917	The Tsar was overthrown as a result of...	The Bolsheviks were just one of several opposition groups who...
Add more events here		