Dear Parents/Carers

We are so pleased to invite you to our performances of Dennis Kelly's DNA. Our Yr10 and 11 students have worked hard and very quickly to bring together this performance. This GCSE text is an engaging and gritty play about bullying and social status.

The play is about a group of teenagers who do something bad, really bad, then panic and cover the whole thing up. Their bullying of another students leads them to having to deal with the consequences of their mistakes.

There are 2 performances on Monday 3rd October and Tuesday 4th October at 7pm, and the play runs at approximately 1hr 15mins, with no interval, in our Drama Studio C1/C2.

Tickets for both performances are only available to purchase through your child's MCAS account - scroll down under your child's photograph to the Beaumont School shop section, and they are priced at £5.

We look forward to welcoming you.

Yours sincerely

Ms Z Shepherd
Assistant Headteacher
